Supplementary Material 1. The questionnaire

Before receiving video education

1. Are you married?
   1) A married marriage
   2) A single

2. Do you want children after diagnosis?
   1) Yes, I have a baby plan.
   2) I have neutral attitude regarding desire to have children.
   3) No, I don’t have a baby plan.

3. Do you have knowledge of the side effects of anticancer therapy on ovarian function and fertility?
   1) I have absolutely no knowledge of the impact.
   2) I have slightly knowledge of the impact.
   3) I have generally knowledge of the impact.
   4) I have absolutely knowledge of the impact.
4. If there were any way to cure breast cancer while preserving ovarian function, would you wish to try and change your cancer treatment method or not?

1) I absolutely do not wish to change anticancer therapy.

2) I would not wish to change anticancer therapy.

3) I am neutral the change anticancer therapy.

4) I would wish to change anticancer therapy.

5) I absolutely do wish to change anticancer therapy.

5. If there were any way to cure breast cancer while preserving fertility, would you wish to try and change your cancer treatment method or not?

1) I absolutely do not wish to change anticancer therapy.

2) I would not wish to change anticancer therapy.

3) I am neutral the change anticancer therapy.

4) I would wish to change anticancer therapy.

5) I absolutely do wish to change anticancer therapy.
6. How long would you agree to delay anticancer treatment in order to undergo a procedure to preserve fertility?

1) Do not delay
2) 1–2 weeks
3) 3–4 weeks
4) 5–6 weeks
5) 7–8 weeks

7. Do you have a need for education regarding therapeutic options that would help to preserve ovarian function and fertility associated with breast cancer therapy?

1) I do not need absolutely education and instructions
2) I do not need education and instructions
3) I Neutral need education and instructions
4) I need education and instructions
5) I need enough education and instructions
After receiving video education

1. Are you married?
   1) A married marriage
   2) A single
   3)

2. Do you want children after diagnosis?
   1) Yes, I have a baby plan.
   2) I have neutral attitude regarding desire to have children.
   3) No, I don’t have a baby plan.

3. Do you have knowledge of the side effects of anticancer therapy on ovarian function and fertility?
   1) I have absolutely no knowledge of the impact.
   2) I have slightly knowledge of the impact.
   3) I have generally knowledge of the impact.
   4) I have absolutely knowledge of the impact.
4. If there were any way to cure breast cancer while preserving ovarian function, would you wish to try and change your cancer treatment method or not?

1) I absolutely do not wish to change anticancer therapy.

2) I would not wish to change anticancer therapy.

4) I am neutral the change anticancer therapy.

5) I would wish to change anticancer therapy.

6) I absolutely do wish to change anticancer therapy.

5. If there were any way to cure breast cancer while preserving fertility, would you wish to try and change your cancer treatment method or not?

1) I absolutely do not wish to change anticancer therapy.

2) I would not wish to change anticancer therapy.

3) I am neutral the change anticancer therapy.

4) I would wish to change anticancer therapy.

5) I absolutely do wish to change anticancer therapy.

6. How long would you agree to delay anticancer treatment in order to undergo a procedure to preserve fertility?

1) Do not delay

2) 1–2 weeks
3) 3–4 weeks
4) 5–6 weeks
5) 7–8 weeks

7. Do you have a need for education regarding therapeutic options that would help to preserve ovarian function and fertility associated with breast cancer therapy?

1) I do not need absolutely education and instructions.
2) I do not need education and instructions.
3) I Neutral need education and instructions.
4) I need education and instructions.
5) I need enough education and instructions.